STUDENTS FEEDBACK

ATTAIB GIBRIN. REPUBLIC OF CHAD

“ I am grateful to the programme “Judicial Power, Public Prosecutor’s Supervision, Organization of Law Enforcement, Lawyers and Notaries” Every student who studied there after getting a bachelor’s degree, has gained great experience in law.

During the studies, each subject was full of practical advice and exercises, so that we could practice our skills. We have had the experience of learning something new. I can say it was a completely different approach to the case.

It was done in a very creative way, so that nobody could miss a single course.

I recommend the students to join this master`s program. Rest assured that you will have an unforgettable intercultural experience at the University, a modern approach to jurisprudence. ”

DEMINA ELIZAVETA, REPUBLIC OF UKRAINE

“ I was a master student at the Department of Judiciary, Law Enforcement and Human Rights Activities.

The training gave me a chance to fulfill my dream, get the “Golden Key”, which can open my future life. Our master’s classes were widely associated with practical experience. All of them were aimed at bringing in contact with our future profession.

Every month, a lot of extracurricular activities were organized, as well as the meetings with prosecutors, judges, lawyers, and scientific conferences were held. We had the opportunity to listen and ask questions to current practitioners in the legal field. I hope that in the future there will be more and more students who will be able to study under this program. ”

NOSIROV MEHROB, REPUBLIC OF TAJIKISTAN

“ Of course, I have only good impressions; I think the programme is very diverse. I am a bachelor’s and master’s degree graduate of this department. In September I am going to enter the PhD programme of the same department.

Due to the diversity of specializations of this department, you can determine where you want to move in your future profession. The teachers are always ready to help in difficult situations associated with the learning process.

Thanks to the department and the specialization “Judicial Power, Public Prosecutor’s Supervision, Organization of Law Enforcement, Lawyers and Notaries” I have learned new things in jurisprudence.

Advantages: if you learn to work in a group you will be more versed in legal practice. ”
