

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW,
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS
PART-TIME MODE

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMME

PROGRAM ADVANTAGES

- ✓ Possibility of in-depth study of the problems of administrative law, administrative justice and administrative process under the guidance of leading administrative law specialists, lecturers of the department, invited specialists in the field of public administration and practicing lawyers.
- ✓ Obtaining of the necessary knowledge and skills for fair resolution of legal conflicts between individuals and executive authorities in the system of administrative and jurisdictional institutions or judicial bodies. Study of the main trends and the procedure for resolving administrative disputes in foreign countries.
- ✓ The feature of studies is full-time and part-time training, flexible modular schedule, mainly evening classes, enabling you to combine training with work, an individual approach and the possibility of using distance learning technologies.
- ✓ Lectures and master classes by invited practitioners, joint creative projects and academic conferences are regularly held.
- ✓ Opportunity to participate in the student exchange programme with partner universities.

STUDYING PROCCCESS

120 credits.

lectures, practicals and self-study, several types of internship.

TOPICAL ISSUES OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW AND PROCESS

- Administrative justice.
- Administrative law of foreign countries.
- Administrative control and supervision.
- Administrative procedures, etc.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND LEGAL MECHANISMS FOR ANTI-CORRUPTION ENFORCEMENT

- Administrative punitive process.
- State and municipal service.
- Public legal regulation of the financial market.
- Administrative and tort economic law of the Russian Federation.
- Theory of administrative contract.
- Licensing system of the Russian Federation.
- Public insurance in the economic sphere.
- Liability for financial improprieties.

ANTITRUST LAW

- Public economic disputes and the procedure for their resolution in the system of administrative justice.
- Financial monitoring and compliance.
- Public legal regulation of foreign economic activity.

STUDENTS FEEDBACK

 NATALYA I. CHESNOKOVA,

“ I have always been interested in administrative law, and when I got to know that the RUDN University Law Institute has a programme “Administrative Law; administrative process”, did not even think about my choice. I need a Master’s degree in law for my further career growth. A huge advantage is that classes are held twice per academic year so I can combine study with work. Many teachers are practicing lawyers. It is interesting to consider legal cases in the classroom, since your teachers know what is happening in the real legal sphere. ”

HEAD OF THE PROGRAMME

OLEG A. YASTREBOV

Doctor of Laws and Economics, Full Professor, Head of the Department of Administrative and Financial Law, Rector of the RUDN University.

President of the Association of Legal Education of the Russian Federation, member of the Higher Qualification Collegium of Judges of the Russian Federation, Deputy Chairman of the Expert Council of the Higher Attestation Commission in Law.

In 2007 he defended his thesis for PhD in law on the topic “State unitary enterprise as a subject of administrative law”, specialty 12.00.14 – administrative law, financial law, information law.

In 2010 he defended his thesis for the degree of Doctor of Laws on the topic “Legal entity of public law: Comparative legal research”, specialty 12.00.14 – administrative law, financial law, information law. He is one of the youngest doctors of law in Russia.

AREAS OF RESEARCH INTERESTS:

administrative law and process; public law; digital law and the legal framework for artificial intelligence.

Author of over 200 research publications, textbooks, monographs, articles in peer-reviewed Russian and foreign journals, including SCOPUS, Web of Science, etc.